SIERRA MADRE NEWS, THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 1949.

VOL. 23, NO. 24.

Around
the Square

A boys' Catholic high school is scheduled for early completion in the Hastings Ranch. It will be at the southwest corner of Michillinda and Sierra Madre boulevard.

Besides Sierra Madre, it will serve the San Gabriel Valley, Pasadena, Altadena, Monrovia and Arcadia.

The girls will have a new building at the site of the old St. Andrews school in Pasadena.

This is all part of the Catholic school development program which will cost $3,500,000 in Los Angeles County.

Dept. of Corrections:

The upper Hastings didn't sell out to Pasadena. There are still a few hundred acres left waiting to be courted by a municipality.

Deputy County Engineer and Surveyor James Wilson, who at first said that the whole piece from Sierra Madre Villa avenue to Michillinda north of Sierra Madre boulevard had been annexed by Pasadena took another look at his maps.

This time he said that all that was annexed was 49 acres at the northwest corner of Michillinda and Sierra Madre boulevard—a square 880 feet to the north and 790 feet to the west.

It is understood that this will become a Pasadena underground water reservoir. Topside there would be a recreation development with tennis courts.

And why not use a corner of the reservoir as a swimming pool? That's what we do each summer when we put the Canyon pool into operation.

Okay, Murphy Bros. call off your dogs.

The Chamber of Commerce wanted to dress up the town in Wistaria banners for the Vine season but the members couldn't bring themselves to drag out of mothballs the old ones that lost their faces in the sun last year.

Popular reaction to the Atwater Kent will which was opened to the public last week was that most of the several dozen celebs that got cuts up to $10,000 each needed the dough just as much as they needed holes in the head.

The point, however, probably lies in the fact that Party-Giver Kent was a man of his word. He probably went through life using as a parting slogan, "Well, I'll remember you in my will."

Reporters are always being told that "this is off the record." Sometimes the "off the record" serves a good purpose.

But we like to point up the words of George M. Cohan who never asked that anything be kept "off the record." He said, "If there is anything a reporter can't print—I shouldn't be saying it."

Peter Ward, the popular ad man, had an unexpected reunion with a war-time Navy acquaintance this week. A Naval officer, Lieut. Javelera, who just retired, dropped into the NEWS office to "look Peter up."

During a meeting at Leyte Pete had signed his address book and said, "Look me up sometime when this is all over."

That was probably a phrase used by "us millions" millions of times.

Well, this Javelera did it.

Pushing even The Vine for top attention this year up on Carter avenue are displays set up by Loyd Wilson's Chinchilla Ranch and Stewart B. McCulloch's pottery.

Swimming Pool and Armory Plans OK'd
By El Monte Council

First concrete step toward the establishment of a swimming pool and State Guard Armory for the use of citizens of the El Monte area was taken this week when the City Council of that town accepted the recommendation of the Planning Commission to locate the swimming pool at the rear of the Civic Center Building and the Armory on the balance of the lot.

Several months ago officers of the State Guard asked the council to assist them in finding public land that could be leased for 49 years as an Armory site. At the time they pointed out they wished a location on a main thoroughfare, as the building would be open for public functions at all times when it was not in use by the Guard.

FIRE AT BONNEY RESIDENCE

The Fire Department was called out Wednesday morning to the Larry Bonney residence, 528 Ramona avenue, where it was reported considerable damage was done to the interior of the house.

Vacation Time Will Be Playtime!

Easter Vacation will be Easter Play-time for Sierra Madre boys and girls. This is the last week of school, the vacation runs through April 11 to the 15th and back to school Easter Monday, April 18th.

Through the co-operation of the Sierra Madre City School and the Sierra Madre Recreation Commission a week of supervised play has been scheduled.

Activities at the school will start each day at 9:00 a. m. till 5:00 p. m. and each child will bring his own lunch. Milk will be available at noon. Classes in crafts, contests, games, painting, etc., have been arranged for.

The small children's playground will have adult supervision for sandpile, swings, slides, jungle gym, and story telling.

POSTAL GAINS

The Sierra Madre Postal receipts have been on the up swing longer than anyone remembers. The month of March is no exception. Postmaster Robertson reports that March, 1949 receipts were $5,371.49 while March of 1948 were $4,827.06, an increase of $544.43, or 12 percent.

C. of C. Backs Proposal For New Pool

The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce this week went on record as favoring the construction of a new swimming pool for Sierra Madre.

Chamber President Al Morgan told the other board members that conditions at the Canyon pool were anything but desirable and that some plan should be worked out for construction of a new pool.

Most likely spot for its construction is the undeveloped park property on Sierra Madre boulevard, he said.

To Study
Plan Law

A committee which will study the city's much-abused subdivision ordinance and make recommendations to the Planning Commission for changes was formed this week.

The committee was appointed by Harry Lange, realtor, who was named by the commission's chairman, Mrs. May de Wright, as organizer.

The other members of the committee are Al Morgan, president of the Chamber of Commerce; R. C. Lewis, president of the Bank of Sierra Madre; City Judge John C. Mead, and George Osborne, a resident of the city and president of the Arcadia Building and Loan.

Lange said the committee will make a thorough study of the ordinance before submitting its recommendations.

MONTEREY LANE—The petition for an opening and widening project for Monterey Lane should be forthcoming soon.

GROVE STREET EXTENSION—There are many reasons why it is desirable for Grove Street to be extended to the proposed extension of Carter Avenue to be known as Loma Alta Drive.

It is necessary to maintain road facilities between Grove Street Reservoir and Auburn and Mira Monte Reservoirs; in addition, Grove Street, as a dead-end street, is far longer than is desirable; it is timely, too, because of the subdividing that is taking place contiguous to the location where the extension is desired.

MANZANITA AVENUE—Against my recommendation the City Council granted the right to Messrs. Louk and Nixon to subdivide property on Manzanita Avenue on the basis of constructing only half a

New Teacher Hired for Sixth Grade

The Board of Trustees of the Sierra Madre School accepted a tentative program for the coming year at the Tuesday night meeting which was called a week in advance on account of vacation and teacher employment. The school year plan is for 172 days of school to open September the 12th. There will be a previous week of orientation for teachers.

The resignation of Joseph Moltane, 6th grade teacher, was accepted at this meeting. The board announced the employment of a local man in Mr. Moltane's place, Chas. Lee McWade. Mr. McWade a Claremont man, is doing apprentice teaching in the 5th grade and next fall will take over the 6th.

There will be no regular meeting of the trustees next week.

Sierra Madre Cancer Fund
1949 Goal Set at $1000
Campaign Well Underway

Governor Earl Warren has proclaimed April "Cancer Control Month" and called on all Californians to "lend their full support" to the American Cancer Society's 1949 educational and fund raising campaign.

The month-long cancer drive, which began April 1, will seek to raise $1,050,253 as California's share of a nationwide goal of $14,500,000 to combat cancer on the three levels of research, education and service.

The quota for Sierra Madre in this Nation-wide campaign is $1000 according to the local chairman of the Civic Club, Mrs. Harold Pangborn. Mrs. Pangborn and her committee have mailed 1500 letters of appeal for funds and suggest that if you have not received your letter to mail your check to the American Cancer Society care of City Hall. There will be no house to house calls.

With scarcely a home or neighbor hood which has not been stricken by cancer Mrs. Pangborn feels confident that there will be a genuine response.

During the past four years, funds contributed by the public to the American Cancer Society have enabled a large group of scientists to devote their full time to the problem of conquering this merciless killer.

Many of these fine scientists are working in California universities on cancer research

Civic Groups Join
For Recreation Aid

Sierra Madre's coordinating council of civic organizations which will take in hand the problem of helping to organize the city's recreation was formed this week.

Representatives of nearly every organization of the city met at the City Hall Tuesday night with a county consultant in community organization, Dwight C. Ramage.

A steering committee was organized, and it will meet next May 10. At that time members will elect permanent officers, adopt by-laws and come up with a plan for projects to be carried out.

Sam McElfresh, city recreation director, was named temporary chairman of the council and will hold office until the next meeting.

Other members of the steering committee are Evelyn Woodworth, representing the P.T.A. and Girl Scouts; Sid Yodow, American Legion Auxiliary; Elizabeth Conzelman, Girl Scouts; Betty Carver, Camp Fire Girls; Hortense Wells, P.T.A.; Charles Skutt, superintendent of schools; Councilman Henry Nuetzel, Milton Goldberg, recreation commission, and Chief of Police McMillan.

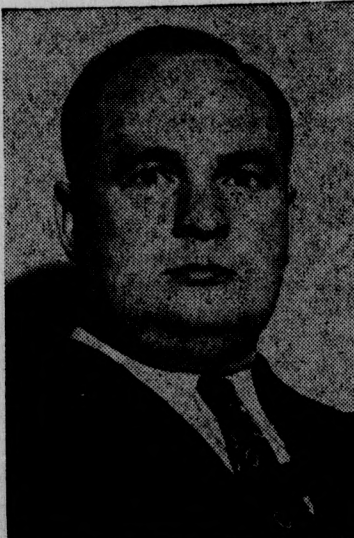

Organization of the coordinating council was recommended in the state survey of recreation made recently by the state. Its formation also had the authorization of the City Council. It will work with the recreation commission, but each organization will retain its autonomy.

Ramage pointed out that a coordinating council is a "local clearing house for community problems and needs. Its job is to get things done rather than to dream."

Its purpose will be to promote cooperation among all organizations interested in the welfare of children and youth, he said.

"Its greatest opportunity lies in the prevention and correction of social ills through realistic planning and intelligent action," he said. "It brings together representatives of governmental, private, civic, religious and youth groups."

IF...? A Terrible Feeling

The case of human rabies which was fatal to Kenneth Oates last Wednesday in General Hospital is of more than passing interest locally.
A Sierra Madrean vitally interested in the case called the NEWS Office suggesting that parents and owners of dogs should know the circumstances which led to the death of the 24-year-old young man.
The dog bite which happened six weeks ago went unnoticed as it only bruised Mr.
Oates' hand; to his knowledge
the skin was not even broken.
However, the dog which had been a pet raised by the family disappeared from home in two days and was never found (very typical of rabies).
On Saturday before Mr. Oates died, he didn't feel well and consulted a physician who diagnosed the trouble at a chronic ear infection. The following day Mr. Oates was forced to consult the doctor again and was immediately sent to the General Hospital and passed away the following day.

If... the Health Department had been notified immediately following the bite, the dog would have been quarantined (at his own home) and observed at no expense. Rabies in dogs develops very rapidly. The patient would have received the Pasteur treatment and probably would have lived to enjoy his family which is a wife and new born son of the week before.

New Book List at City Library

By ISABEL STRADLEY
"The Seven-Storey Mountain" by Thomas Merton is an inspiring, sometimes very moving book. The author uses the seven-tiered mountain (Dante's image of Purgatory) as a symbol of the modern novel. Thomas Merton's father was a successful painter and the boy grew up in America and France. The book tells in engrossing detail his endless quest to find some meaning to life in this cruel, century. It is the autobiography of a brilliant young American intensely active, highly educated, and a poet of achievement.

After a very full and worldly life for all his twenty-six years, he decides to withdraw from the world, much as did the great St. Augustine, only after fully immersing himself in it. At the end he enters the Trappist monastery at Gethsemani, Kentucky.

The book is written with a combination of highly intellectual philosophy, lively wit, and considering how deep is the subject, with a delightful simplicity. It is written also in a perfect glow of happiness, not a mock happiness—a genuine happiness. To set all this down is to give no hint of the extraordinary appeal of the book. Readers who are far from being either religious or contemplatives should find its civilized comment of living interest.

"People seem to think," says Thomas Merton, "that it is in some way a proof that no merciful God exists, if we have so many wars. But did it ever occur to you that after centuries of evil and greed and injustice and cruelty, spawned and bred by the free wills of men, the human race can still recover each time, and can still produce men and women who overcome evil with good, hatred with love, greed with charity . . ."

"The Seven-Storey Mountain" is now at the library and other new books are:

Non-fiction: Washington By-Line, Furman; Cheaper by the Dozen, Gilbreth; Greatest Story Ever Told, Oursler; Peaks and Lamas, Pallis; Valley Below, Marriott; '49ers, Wells; California Pictorial, Van Nostrand; Sugar Islands, Waugh; Problem Drinker, Hirsh; Writing From Idea to Printed Page, Gundell; Proper Study of Man-kind, Chase; American Argument, Buck; Fear, War and the Bomb, Blackett; Tax-Dodgers, Irey; History of Popular Music, Spaeth; Toymaker's Book, Maginley; It Gives Me Great Pleasure, Kimbrough; Shake Well Before Using, Cerf; Anne of the Thousand Days (drama), Anderson; Selected Works, Benet; Big Divide, Lavender; Fireside Quiz Book, Cooper.

Fiction: High Holiday, Norris; Heat of the Day, Bowen; Cutlass Empire, Mason; Evergreen, Holstius; Light Heart, Thane; In Winter Light, Corle; Fires of Spring, Michener; Point of No Return, Marquand; Jacaranda Tree, Bates; The Ducks, Zilahy; The God-Seeker, Lewis; Scott-King's Europe, Waugh; Young Mrs. Savage, Stevenson; Elephants and Castle, Hutchinson; The Chain, Wellman; Born 1925, Britain; My Heart Shall Not Fear, Lawrence; Portrait in Two Colours, Jackman.

Chief Warns Fire Danger To Children

Science has reduced the death-rate from children's diseases phenomenally, but we still permit fire to kill thousands of defenseless youngsters every year, Fire Chief Heasley declared in a plea to parents to authorities to clean out fire hazards in the community. He suggested a few rules for children's protection which are recommended by The National Board of Fire Underwriters:

1. Don't leave children at home alone. Be sure your baby sitter is a mature, reliable person and that she knows how to call the fire department.
2. Keep young children out of the kitchen if possible. See utilize Spring Clean-Up Week to protect their homes.

CLEAN-UP — DON'T BURN UP!

The chief pointed out that people still have a feeling that fire, like lightning, strikes haphazardly. He emphasized that fire breaks out where conditions are favorable, where rubbish is allowed to collect or electrical wiring has deteriorated or any number of other hazards have developed from simple negligence.

BURNS LEADING KILLER

Burns are still a leading cause of deaths of small children, accounting for 33 per cent of all home accidental deaths of children under 5, the chief said.

He called upon parents to follow a better safety program at home and join with local civic groups and school authorities to clean out fire hazards in the community. He suggested a few rules for children's protection which are recommended by The National Board of Fire Underwriters:

3. Allow children at campfires only under your supervision. Very often they lose their footing on sticks or stones around the fire and fall into the flames.
4. Be sure to keep a metal screen in front of the fire place so that children can play safely near it.
5. Keep the back yard clear of all rubbish and broken bottles. It will be more attractive as well as a more healthful place for the children.
6. Don't dress children in flimsy cottons or costumes of net, brushed wool or rayon which flash fire dangerously.

Twelve members Will Be Initiated Into Legion Auxiliary

Next Thursday evening, April 14th, the American Legion Auxiliary will put on an initiation ceremony at the home of Sylvia Quittner, 241 Ramona Ave., at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Harold Roberts will be Initiation Officer and will be assisted by Past Presidents: Ora Olsen, Lucille Nollac, Sylvia Quittner, Kitty Miller, Minnie Stinman, Maybelle Barker, Leila Embree, Lucille Pickett and Bertha Irvine. Twelve members will be initiated into the Unit.

Artist-Inventor Takes to Writing

When H. I. Hawxhurst, 118 Esperanza, opens his copy of the April Popular Mechanics Magazine, he'll find that he's now a magazine writer.

Some time ago, Hawxhurst sent an idea to the editors of Popular Mechanics that he thought other people might find interesting and useful. The Popular Mechanics editors must have thought so too for they passed the idea along, with full credit to Hawxhurst, to millions of Popular Mechanics readers all over the world. The suggestion appears in the April Popular Mechanics in an illustrated article signed: "H. I. Hawxhurst, Sierra Madre, Calif."

AGED PRIAR — Sherman Lewis, San Jacinto business man and city judge, who dons robes and grease paint to appear in role of the kindly, beloved Father Salvaderra in famed Ramona Outdoor Play opening for 22nd season this month at Ramona Bowl near Hemet. Playing dates for Ramona will be April 23 and 24, April 30 and May 1, and May 7 and 8, in afternoon performances only.

JEWELRY BUSINESS TAKEN OVER BY NEW MANAGEMENT

E. J. Hansen has taken over the space at 62 West Sierra Madre boulevard in the Danielson store recently vacated by Edw. Seeley.

Mr. Hansen, formerly in the Pratt Store, has a long history of jewelry and repair experience.

Brothers Share Honors In Music

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pennock and sons of 120 South Baldwin, spent Saturday in Monrovia where the District Musical Festival was held. Malcolm Pennock, a student at Marshall, who received a First Division rating by his trombone solo shared the honor with his brother, Deane, a student in the Sierra Madre School, who won a First Division rating in trumpet.

Both of these fine young musicians are eligible for the finals to be held in Fullerton later this month.

The All-Southern California Junior High Orchestra gave a fine program Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Malcolm has been first trombonist in the orchestra this season. Several Sierra Madreans were in Monrovia for the concert.

Colored Mexican Pictures Garden Club Program

Murray Hawkins, president of the Sierra Madre Garden Club, reports that the organization is enjoying a very healthy increase in membership. The club which meets the 2nd Monday of the month for dinner and a garden program has already outgrown the side dining room at the Woman's clubhouse and the last audience comfortably filled the auditorium.

The program next Monday night will be given by Jacques Hahn who recently made a Mexican trip, taking many beautiful pictures in color which he will project following the dinner.

"Your Garden for April" will be discussed by F. D. R. Moote.

Be a good neighbor on the highway.

DANCE NIGHT CHANGED

Because of Good Friday, the Recreation Commission-sponsored Teen Age Dance will be held Wednesday evening, April 13, at the Park House. Usual chaperones will be Sam McElfresh, Louis Sauter and Frank Vane.

CANYON FIRE JUST SMOKE

A fire alarm at 12:30 noon, Thursday, March 31, dispatched the fire trucks to the Frazier home, 670 Alta Vista Drive. It seems Mrs. Frazier and children had gone for a walk and returned to find their Canyon home full of smoke.

According to reports, the smoldering was caused by a wooden stool accidentally shoved against a heater.

Fire Chief Heasley, whose residence is in that area, was first to arrive at the Frazier home and had everything under control when the fire trucks arrived.

POLICE BLOTTER

Missing boys, fire permits and stray dogs retain their popular position on the police blotter. . . A "paanandler" in Sierra Madre is not common. The cops enjoyed a ride with the fellow to the city limits. . . Ah, a threatening call from a belligerent drunk brought the cops to their feet and away. . . Death investigation.

When a fellow called to redeem his unpaid for property (an auto engine), the police were called in to prevent disturbance of the peace. . . A call for the fire department resuscitator. . . Burning out of hours! Ralph Hurwit accidentally broke one of his store windows. Asked the patrolmen to keep one eye on the window and the other inside the store. . . Paul Bird acted as peace-maker between estranged wife and husband. Good job.

A trucker lost a rubber-tired piano dolly. Would like to have it back. . . Tree and wires down. . . A lost tarpaulin has not been returned. The finder would be very kind to report it at the police station. . . A "T.C." (meaning a traffic accident). . . A dying child is rushed to the hospital. Too late. . . A water pipe burst, burning out of hours and such, for several pages. . . Lost child. Returned home. . . Drunk in a car (asleep). . . A fire call. . . Police car is first to the scene of the fire (one for the police side).

A car "skirt" has been found and turned into the police station. Owner may describe it and take it away. . . Boys shooting within the city limits is a very dangerous practice and why do parents permit it? Every so often we read of some one having been shot by a stray B.B. or a bullet. . . A lost eye is lost forever.

"Family trouble." A 415 call. 415 P.C. means a peace disturbance according to the Penal Code. . . School students waiting for the busses, continue to do things that are not kindly to others. Marking cars, turning signs around and such is really not proper for students.

"Dog in the chicken yard." (Likes his chicken fresh). . . Brother robs sister. Strange things happen. . . Injured girl brought in from the mountains. Taken to the doctor's.

Groceries left on the sidewalk are found by youngsters, who reported it to the police. Owner was glad to locate. . . Newly painted curbs now stick out like a sore thumb after fresh painting. If you are unaware of the meanings of the colors, it may be a good idea to find out. RED, at least, you know. NO PARKING!

Those who would remove a red lantern from an excavation surely are not those who think of why the lanterns were placed there. A severe penalty should be imposed on any person, old or young, who removes a lantern from an excavation or other hazard.

A fire started by children with matches. Did not reach the house but could have with very little encouragement. Folks are asked to keep matches away from children. . . A grand theft report. . . Boys building a house in a tree, neglected to inquire of the owner of the lot if he objected. He did. Tree house down.

Some citations are being written to those who fail to observe the traffic rules. There are many driving mistakes that can be made that call for a "ticket." Better read up on 'em. Here's one: A mattress lost! . . . Small boy with an air rifle shot his little neighbor girl. Fortunately, the spot was not vital. Parents MUST control this shooting within the city limits. It is DANGEROUS! . . . The new shiny cars and the new shotgun arrangement is attracting much curiosity about the patrol cars. All we need now is a day off once in a while and perhaps shorter working hours. . . (Amen to THAT!)

JACKIE THURSTON

After their selection as finalists they were taken to the R.K.O. studio in Hollywood to meet studio representatives, including Edward Stevenson. At Miss Preble's studio they were given a fundamental course in modelling. They were guests of N.B.C. during the broadcast of the "Women are Wonderful" program.

Later they had their pictures taken with Rockwell. At the Hall of Records they posed again for pictures with Supervisor William A. Smith. He presented them with camellias grown in his garden.

The five girls then were guests of Taix restaurant for dinner and Paramount Theaters for a show later.

Miss Prebles announced that the queen contest winner, Miss Thurston, would be given a free course in modelling at the school she runs in conjunction with her famous modelling agency.

Miss Prebles has helped promote the careers of such personalities as Jane Russell, Esther Williams, Katherine Casidy, the world's No. 1 model, and Susan Howell, last year's Memphis Cotton Queen.

The Wistaria Vine, which was opened to the public last week, is expected to reach full bloom by this weekend. Cold weather last week kept it from coming into full bloom, but the blossoms during this week have begun to break over the entire vine.

Of particular interest to visitors to the Vine this year is a pottery display by Stewart McCulloch of Sierra Madre. Each Sunday afternoon Mrs. Sheila Colbert Mariotti gives a working demonstration of the methods used in making ceramic art works.

The chinchilla display of Loyd Wilson has also drawn a swarm of onlookers. A display of woodcarving has been placed under the vine by Herb Kelly.

The Wistaria season is expected to last through May 1. On April 23 the Womens Club, one of the four sponsoring organizations this year, will stage a dance at the Woman's Clubhouse to honor the Wistaria Queen and her princesses. In charge of the dance is Mrs. Loyd Wilson.

This dashing bolero suit is fashioned of Milridge Wool for those who custom-make their own Spring costumes.

Undulant Fever

Brucellosis, or undulant fever, a disease that is transmitted from certain animals to people, causes great suffering and discomfort and can leave the patient exhausted long after the acute attack. It is difficult to cure and is apt to recur again and again.

The source of undulant fever is such food-producing animals as cows, hogs, and goats. Most people who contract the disease in this country get it from drinking raw or unpasteurized milk from infected cows, or from consuming food products made from raw milk. Others get the disease from direct contact with diseased cattle or by handling infected raw meat.

One of the dangers of undulant fever is that its symptoms are similar to those of many other diseases. Since it is difficult to diagnose when it first strikes, it is frequently mistaken for such other diseases as rheumatic fever, malaria, typhoid fever or tuberculosis. So it can go unrecognized long after early symptoms appear.

Undulant fever gets its name from the fact that it is often characterized by a fever that rises and falls daily. It causes tiredness and listlessness, and rheumatic-like pains in different parts of the body.

Death from undulant fever is rare, but the disease causes prolonged disability. Prompt and proper treatment gives the sick person a better chance of cure in a shorter time. But it also happens that even with good medical care, a patient may suffer recurring attacks of undulant fever for years.

PRE-EASTER PARTY FOR FOUR-YEAR-OLD

After a lapse of 15 years, the Los Angeles area again is to have its own "Who's Who" publication, it was announced today by Alice Catt Armstrong, executive editor. "Who's Who in Los Angeles," she said, will be published this year and every two years thereafter. Most major areas boast their own "Who's Who."

House Olson, well-known local typographical artist, who lives at 704 Canyon Crest Drive, is in charge of typography and collating.

Only top leaders in the civic, cultural, financial and business fields will be eligible for inclusion, Miss Armstrong declared.

Nominations for inclusion in "Who's Who in Los Angeles" may be mailed to the business office of the Society, 1150 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles.

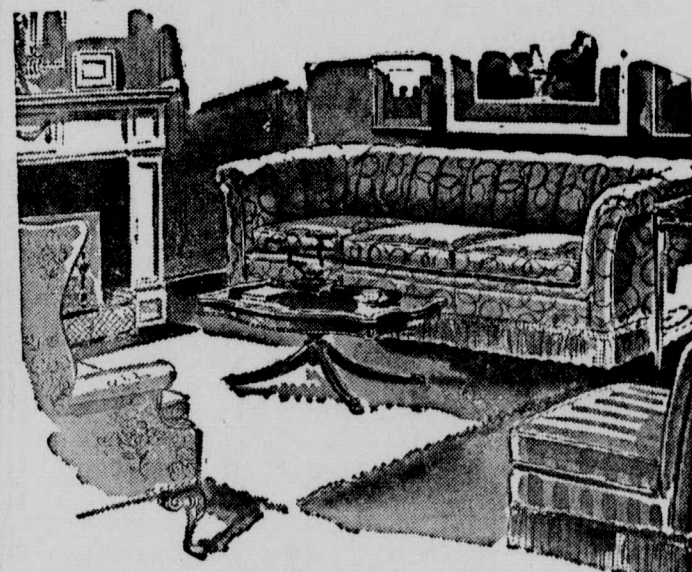

YOUNG BOYS SET BRUSH ABLAZE

A pile of dry bamboos and pampas grass at 646 West Highland proved too great a temptation for a couple of very small boys who set fire to the brush early Friday afternoon, according to police.

Neighbors quickly extinguished the blaze and the fire alarm was not rung.

Owner of the property has promised to remove the temptation.

Rise and Fall in Local Building Picture

New residential building permits in Sierra Madre for the month of March, 1949, jumped $14,000 over the February mark of $22,000. Last month's new residential building totaled $36,000 with an estimated $5600 spent for alterations. This is a decided drop however, after the residential building boom of March, 1948, when $188,850 was invested in new dwellings.

Permits were issued to Jack Slater, 233 East Orange Grove to repair fire damage, $800; R. K. Merritt, 180 South Michilinda, erect building and car port, 500 North Lima, $7500; Jewel D. Murphy, 532 Audobon Way to erect dwelling and garage at Cypress Court, $7500; H. E. Morley, 400 West Ramona, erect dwelling and garage at 360 Ramona, $8000; Roy B. Parkes, 833 Canyon, build accessory building, $500; H. C. Conrey, 40 East Laurel, add bedroom, $500; W. H. Gettemy, 96 North Sunnyside, alter dwelling, $2000; Mrs. Mitchell, 5A South Hermosa, alter building, $7000;

C. F. Morse of San Marino to build at 264 East Highland, $7000; Ted Proctor, 280 San Gabriel Court, add bedroom, $500; C. Bowman, 138 West Sierra Madre Blvd., alter house, 660 Holly Trail, $500; Jack Osgood, 52 East Montecito, erect dwelling, 299 Cypress Court, $3000; Eber Thomas, 331 West Carter, to build at same address, $2500; C. W. Herber, 453 East Grandview to add two rooms, $1000; Robert Clark, 161 Lowell, to build paint and body shop at 15 Auburn, $3500;

S. Nemerson, 265 Ramona, alter garage to guest house, $1000; R. H. Ohs, 30 East Carter, to add four rooms, $2500; Andrew Hedblom, 30 East Carter, add accessory building, $2000, and A. Schuner, 286 West Highland, to build garage, $650.

projects financed by the society. Through energetic efforts of this kind, the fight is on the way to being won.

14,000 CALIFORNIANS Cancer, probably the most dread disease besetting our people, took the lives of more than 14,000 persons in California last year, and the number of fatalities is still on the increase, both in the State and Nation.

Even now, cancer can be cured if it is recognized early and treated promptly. One of the major objectives of the American Cancer Society is widespread education of the public to recognize the danger signals of cancer before it is too late.

sidy, like that to the farmers, be borne by all of the people—not just real property owners?

"Too many people are rendering lip service to the fight against Communism. It is time to back words with action and resist those policies, including rent control by which the proponents of Communism are endeavoring to accomplish their purpose. It is time that our officials participate in this opposition, no matter how impolitic it may be to do so.

"I hope that the City Council will have the courage of their convictions and vote either for or against decontrol in Sierra Madre.

"In any event, it is useless for them to resort to the postponing of action on the question, or burying it in the committee of the whole, for sooner or later they, like all of us, must stand up and be counted.

"Some day each of us will have to declare whether he believes in American institutions and the rights of the individual which the Constitution was created to preserve and protect, or whether he believes in a European socialistic state, one of the goals of which, in the words of Marx, is the abolition of property in land and application of all rents of land to public purposes."

"What could be a better first step than to take a portion of rents away from landowners and give it to others of supposedly less means?"

"It is no answer for the Council to say that Governor Warren has indicated that he will not approve rent decontrol at the local level.

"For the governor, by his refusal to permit decontrol in Sierra Madre, if the City Council approves, will in effect declare that he no longer believes in the American principle of government at the local level, a principle which Congress recognized for the purpose of avoiding its own responsibility, in extending rent control.

"If that is his belief, the people of the State are entitled to know it.

"Here is an opportunity for Sierra Madre to take the forefront in a fight for the return to constitutional government and local self-government and to demonstrate to the State and the Nation that it is a community of individuals who have the integrity and the courage to solve their own problems under the American system of free enterprise.

"I invite every citizen of Sierra Madre, whether he be a property owner or a tenant, to join with me in this application to the City Council."

for Aerojet at Azusa while Mrs. James is a member of the alto section of the Community Chorus.

The bass solos will be sung by Donald Bowling, a senior at P.C.C. and already a familiar name on radio. He lives with his family on South Michilinda, and is rapidly carving a career on stage and on the air. Incidental solos are taken by Francis Eakman and Jody Starbuck.

V. Gray Farrow, A.A.G.O., eminent southland organist, will again preside at the console and the musical direction will be under Stewart Matter. All arrangements have been capably managed by Kenneth Bush.

It is pointed out that this is a non-sectarian performance and is open to all who wish to relieve that week of tragedy and triumph, to again impress upon our consciousness the full significance, the very real purpose of our yearly observance of Christ's passion and resurrection.

"I invite every citizen of Sierra Madre, whether he be a property owner or a tenant, to join with me in this application to the City Council."

New Street Survey Is Completed

First step toward construction of a new street south of Sierra Madre boulevard from Baldwin to Hermosa avenues was taken this week with the survey of the proposed street.

Al Myers said the survey had been completed so that property owners would be able to determine new lot lines.

The entrance on Baldwin would be just south of the Red Cross Chapter House. The street would open into Hermosa just south of the Congregational Church.

Petitions for the street development are already out, Myers said, and many residents of Esperanza street, whose properties would face on it to the north, already have signed.

The street as proposed would hold solve off street parking for the downtown area and provide additional space for both business and residential development.

It has been suggested that the street be zoned for light manufacturing or multiple dwellings.

St. Rita Starting Square Dancing for Teen-Age Groups

Fifty guests attended the first of a series of square dances at St. Rita's Hall Monday evening. The dances are sponsored by the Chi Rho Club and will occur the first and third Monday of the month with Paulus Stone calling.

Fr. Finan, moderator of the club, says the dances are not only for the teen-age group but older people as well who enjoy this sociability.

The evening starts at 7:30 with an hour of instruction with the square dancing following. Joseph Sweeney is president of the Sierra Madre Chi Rho, a National organization.

WITH MARSHALL'S

"CONSIDER THE LILIES..."

Their chaste white heads bowed, like saintly vestals, they stand in pure array, symbols of this sacred Easter time.

Lilies, best known and most revered flowers of antiquity. Their praises sung by poets since the days of Homer.

They have long been known as 'garden aristocrats' and certainly their stately splendor richly deserves such a name, for there is no other subject that adds such dignified glory to so many and varied settings.

In the Church at the Easter season, at weddings, or when loved ones have departed. In the home, or as gifts for friends. Whether in pots, or used as cut flowers—this same dignified beauty prevails.

We have a bountiful supply at our nursery and flower shop. Please come to see them—and us! We wish you a Happy, Happy Easter!

NEW RAMONA—Consuelo Young, of Los Angeles, talented 22-year-old actress, who has been selected to play the title role of Ramona in forth-coming 1949 Centennial Production of famed Ramona Outdoor Play being staged for 22nd season in natural amphitheater of Ramona Bowl, near Hemet. Miss Young was chosen by dramatic judges over nine other applicants for the role. Ramona Play will be presented this season in week-end, matinee performances on April 23 and 24, April 30 and May 1, and May 7 and 8.

Evan Williams Named Director For MAD Band

Stanley McClintic, superintendent of MAD high school, announced last week that Evan Williams will join the faculty of the high school next year in the instrumental music department. He will direct the senior and junior bands and marching band, and in addition will teach a class in music theory.

McClintic stated that Williams, who is a graduate of UCLA, is one of the top band directors of the state and has won high rating with his bands in all contests and festivals.
Associated with the Escondido school system for 10 years, Williams has directed the Union high school band for the last two years.

BONDS BACK

Mr. and Mrs. Troy A. Bond are moving back to Sierra Madre and will reside at 420 Woodland Drive. For the past few months they have been living in Richmond, Calif.

Nordstrom To Coach Baseball

There are still a few good positions open in the newly organized American Legion Junior Baseball team, according to Ralph Van Vleet, manager.
Eighteen boys have reported in.
This remarkable opportunity is open to boys 12 to 17 years of age.

It might be interesting to know that 243 men playing in the major leagues are former American Legion Junior players.
Local practice is Thursday afternoon at 4:30, Saturdays and Sundays at 2 p. m., at the school. Harold Nordstrom of the Sierra Madre Hardware has been engaged as coach. Mr.
Nordstrom, a former player with the L.A. Angels, coached the Championship American Legion Junior baseball team of Arizona.

Hi Yodow, Legion Commander, says the Post feels that the local team looks like one of the good teams. The winning team of the state will have a free trip to Honolulu to play the winning team of the Department of Hawaii.

FAMILY MEETS FOR REUNION ON DESERT

Chief and Mrs. James Heasley with Mrs. Heasley mother and sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Heston and Mae Heston, respectively, of this city, with another sister and husband, Mr.
and Mrs. Walter Klinger of Pasadena, spent the week-end with the third sister, Mrs. Emogene Moor, a teacher at the NOTC high school at China
Lake.

ATWATER KENT, Jr., who has announced the continuation of the $15,000 Atwater Kent Auditions for young non-professional singers. Provision for this was made by his late father, philanthropist Atwater

FIRE FLAMES

The next event of the fire fighter's activities to arouse much interest is the coming Easter Party at the Public Park.
Things will be done there on Saturday, April 16th when all the children of town are invited to enter the games and hunt for colored eggs throughout the park. On Friday evening, April 15th, the fire fighters will gather at the city pumping plant to color the eggs and have a little fun doing it.

Another fortunate stop was made when a fire had started in a house at 670 Alta Vista Drive. Quick response of the fire department and the immediate call for the fire department resulted in stopping what could have been a very serious fire very close to the mountains. The drivers of the trucks report the usual obstruction of cars along the narrow roads of the canyon. It is for the best protection of the residents of this district to practice staying off the road when it is necessary to get the trucks thru. It is very simple to figure how easily the fire trucks could be fully blocked by traffic. If we do not fail to remember that fires can start very easily, we are very apt to pile up another record of low fire losses for the year. Let's do it. Keep the FIRES OUT.

Once the only way

The P.O. Box by the side of the road is one of America's cherished symbols... and once the "post" was the only way to communicate with anyone at a distance.

In 1775 our Continental Congress set up a post office system independent of the Inter-Colonial Post Service which operated under the Crown, and named Benjamin Franklin Postmaster General.

Under Franklin postal rates were fixed in accordance with distance and number of "sheets." It cost 6 cents to send one "sheet" 30 miles; 10 cents for 80 miles; 18 3/4 cents for 400 miles, and 25 cents for greater distances.

Since the establishment of the postal system much has happened in the communication field. Today you can talk round the world on the telephone in a matter of minutes... you can talk with a friend on the East Coast as easily as with a friend next door
... and at a cost of only $2.50 (plus tax) for three minutes. Long distance telephoning is as easy as mailing a letter... and "gets there" faster.

Co-Operation to Prevent Rabies Sought by County

With several cases of animal rabies reported in the local areas in the past few weeks, the Los Angeles County Health Department asks the public for co-operation in helping prevent further spread of rabies. Consult your veterinarian or contact the local health office should your animals show any unusual sickness or change of disposition. Tendency to leave home, change of voice, refusal to eat, tendency to bite or snap without provocation, weakness or paralysis of the lower jaw or legs or enlargement of the pupil of the eyes are symptoms of rabies.

Rabies is not a summer disease. With the advent of cooler weather many believe the necessity of treatment of dog bite wounds and the danger of rabies in animals or humans ceases to exist. The disease is primarily one of dogs, although all warm-blooded animals and men are susceptible to rabies.

The disease is caused by a filterable virus contained in the saliva of the infected animals, and is primarily spread by the infected animal biting another, although it may be spread by the saliva containing the virus getting into any open wound. Evidence has been presented which shows the virus of rabies may be present in the saliva of the animal from 3 to 8 days prior to the time clinical symptoms of rabies are noted. The animal will usually die 3 to 6 days after symptoms are noted. Any person bitten by any animal is advised to consult his physician or the district health officer relative to proper treatment, and to give the name and address of the animal's owner. The Los Angeles County Health Department has trained inspectors who will follow up cases and place the animal under quarantine and observation on the premises of the owner.

Co-operation of the public in reporting all dog bites and all cases of suspected rabies to the local health office will be of great assistance in controlling rabies.

STREET IMPROVEMENT

erty fronts on a half street. The disadvantages of the decision made by the City Council in this case are not brought up in a spirit of controversy, but rather to prevent a recurrence of a similar situation in the future.

MISCELLANEOUS PROPOSED CHANGES IN ZONING ORDINANCE

The following changes are suggested:

1. The purpose section should be rewritten. It should be enlarged so that in addition to regulating the location and use of buildings, the height and size of structures, it have for its objects and purposes the conservation and stabilization of the value of property, provision for open spaces, for light and air; to prevent undue concentration of population and to generally promote the health, safety and general welfare in accordance with a comprehensive plan.

The Set-Back Ordinance should be made a part of the Zoning Ordinance. A set-back should be established for each block in the City and should be shown on a published map, and a provision for a variance or conditional variance should be made in the event the particular set-back appeared to be unjust or arbitrary.

Minimum garage or carport requirements should be established for all residential property and a study should be made promptly of required parking space for commercial and manufacturing areas.

A zoning committee or executive committee should be created in order to handle exceptions, variances and interpretations. The Ordinance should provide for approval of these by the Planning Commission and an appeal to the City Council by the agreed applicant.

The Ordinance should be amended to require compliance with all its terms as a condition precedent to obtaining a permit to build.

STREET DEPARTMENT A. Organization and Personnel.

1. The work of the Street Department will be of such magnitude over the next year or two-year period to justify setting up the Street Department as a separate entity. I know of no better qualified or experienced person in the City of Sierra Madre to head such a department than Mr. Verne Udell. I have gone over the ground for the proposed project in very great detail with Mr. Udell and he is thoroughly familiar with the work that is to be done and he knows HOW it should be done. A city the size of Sierra Madre is very fortunate in having in its employ a man of Mr. Udell's all round experience. Were it not that I believe it best to separate the Water and Street Departments for at least the next two-year period, I would recommend that Mr. Udell be promoted to the position of combination Street and Water Superintendent.
